

The Cottage Garden

Our year in photos 2016-17

Welcome to The Cottage Garden
our Waldorf Home Nursery Program

we were assisted by Bridget Callahan and
Christine Cassagneau

Celia Ríahí & Barbara Audley

So happy to be back for another year, we can get right down to play.

First Days, Parents joined us for coffee and muffins, story and song

After we eat we wash our hands with our lavender washcloths
Play inside and out

Friends

Sleeping and resting

Playing outside

Playing inside

Building, Playing running, just having fun

Eating, Junie says even my toes taste delicious!!!

Autumn is coming

Poem by Ruth Le Bar
When I go into a cavern dark
I will not be afraid
I'll take my little lantern out,
To chase the dark away.
When I go into a forest
And darkness fills my sight.
I'll take my little lantern out
To make the darkness bright

Song

Glimmer lantern glimmer, little stars a shimmer
Over meadow, moor and dale
Flitter flutter elfin vale Peewit peewit, tick-a-tick-a-tick. Roo-coo, roo-coo
Glimmer lantern glimmer, little stars a
shimmer
Over rock and stock and stone
Wander tripping little gnome
Peewit peewit, tick-a-tick-a-tick. Roo-
coo, roo-coo

Prince Autumn has painted the leaves and Brother Wind has blown them down for us to play and work 20

This is what we hope for all the children, 45 minutes of pure cooperation, negotiation, problem solving and friendship. They turned the hay bale, played on it and then took their "tools" to saw it in half. They sawed through the rope and then spread it around the garden. They then started on the second one. They were so happy and proud.

December brings the darkness and we have to find ways to keep our light shining.

Mabel's birthday and baking cookies

January a good time for felting and it snowed!!

Visitors: Becky, Aimee's sister, Lisa , Meg & Bing

Dr. Kate's office is open and we also made some glittery Valentines

Valentine snack, playing, stacking and hmm ...some heavy reading instead of a nap!

Then the Queen & King came to visit.

Cooking with Christine finding treasures

Sewing, crafting and playing. June says anything you can do I can do better...

Finally the Sun came out and we could play with water.

Ahhh wonder, toes in the air, just looking up at the sky-how high can we climb?

Friends are so much fun to play with and Christine has a warm lap when someone is tired

Baking muffins for our picnic and grinding nuts

One day Princess Rainbow went for a walk, along the way to the ocean she met, Chippy Chipmunk, Good Morning Girl and Mermaid..... the older children and I made the puppets, they made up the story and were the puppeteers.

Swinging, swinging.....

Bye garbage truck see you soon.

It's time to say goodbye now.....

Angel strong beside me stand, love and thanks in my heart and hand. Thank you for our happy days, guard and care for my friends always.
